FORM GALLERY

Form Gallery exists to showcase and retail New Zealand Contemporary Object Art, playing an important role in presenting to the Christchurch audience and visitors to the city, the work of emerging and established Object Artists. Form is a fluid retail/exhibition space, which changes monthly. We feature stunning works in cast glass, ceramic, stone as well as beautiful hand-made jewellery from emerging and established Object Artists in the form of both solo and group exhibitions. Our exhibition schedule is structured to include shows that seek to present new and innovative pieces as well as shows of a more accessible nature.

ADVERTISE FOR FREE

Do you want to get your business seen but don't have the budget? Consider contributing an article for the Arts Canterbury website. News articles feature in the large news slider at the top of the Arts Canterbury website and are automatically emailed to all subscribers. We will include a FREE advertisement for your business to accompany your article. Member businesses may submit up to four articles per year, which will each appear for up to a month on the Arts Canterbury news slider.

Articles must be between 750 - 1200 words and be of subject matter valuable to the Canterbury arts community (no infomercials). Feature one of the member artists your gallery represents. Review or give a tutorial on a new painting medium. Arts Canterbury reserves the right to reject any article submission at their discretion.
